The information given in the Individual Section Guidelines for Producers is to be read in conjunction with the Terms of Entry to the 2019 KFA National Championships.

The use of Apparatus is not allowed in this section - no part of a garment/costume can be detached and used as apparatus.

The movements and music for this piece are to be the choice of the individual producer. The producer may ask for help and guidance but this is to be given on an individual basis at the request of the producer.

It is recommended that producers include some repetition of content in their item, allowing more opportunities for judges to assess performance against the criteria.
